Description

Description: Kaiser Immobilien presents a building plot with an area of 4950 m² from its offer. The land offers an extraordinary opportunity to build a cottage or resort in the heart of nature in Gorski Kotar. The proximity of Risnjak National Park and the source of the Kupa River, whose upper course is also called the miraculous valley of butterflies, due to the richness of flora and fauna, all this land makes it special and attractive for nature lovers and those looking for relaxation in a peaceful and beautiful environment. Orientation towards the south-west ensures plenty of sun throughout the day, and the rectangular shape of the land allows various architectural possibilities and landscaping according to the needs and wishes of the owner. It is surrounded by coniferous forest, which further enhances the feeling of natural peace and quiet and provides additional privacy to the owners. The road leads to the field as well as all the infrastructure. ID CODE: 120-002
