Description

Description:

Kaiser Immobilien presents a house with a spacious garden in Labin. The house is located in the immediate vicinity of the center, only a few minutes' drive away from various city amenities. It is spread over a beautiful garden of 900m² with pleasant views of nature. It is located in an excellent neighborhood, very quiet but still quickly connected to the city center. The house is currently under construction and is being sold as such. The ground floor offers two entrances and a wonderful open space intended for the kitchen, living room and one room with a toilet. There are two bedrooms with bathrooms and a terrace on the first floor. The terrace offers a wonderful view of nature and surroundings. The swimming pool was built in front of the house and is perfectly integrated into the garden and spacious garden with a view of the vineyard. Labin is a great city, growing every day and offering more and more content to its residents. With its diverse content, it is an excellent year-round location, but also a tourist destination. Rabac is only a 15-minute drive away and offers a beautiful coast with numerous tourist attractions. ID CODE: 112-031
