Description

Description:	Kaiser Immobilien presents a unique building plot, 1st row to the sea. The land is connected to a road with electricity and water. It is the only land with these attributes and predisposition in such a desirable and idyllic location. The width of the exit area to the sea is 50m. The terrain is slightly sloping and partly cascading. The land is located on the east coast of Istria, with one of the most beautiful sunrises. With an open view of Kvarner and Cres and Lošinj, this land offers the most beautiful view possible from your property. The land is surrounded by a green belt and is completely secluded. Because of its large square footage, it connects the construction part with the agricultural part, and the agricultural part connects with the sea. The usability of the plot offers you the possibility of an idyllic construction according to your wishes. Hidden beaches and coves will be close at hand, the uninhabited surroundings will ensure your privacy and peace. Various restaurants, cafes and other lifestyle amenities are located just a ten-minute drive away. Labin is well and quickly connected to the property and offers you various activities. The Brestovo ferry port is a few minutes' drive away and offers a multitude of options and activities throughout the year. If you want to relax in nature, in the immediate vicinity is the newly opened golf driving range
