Description

Description: Kaiser Immobilien presents building land with excellent square footage and location. Located in nature, not far from the versatile coast of this municipality, the land offers complete privacy and peace. Life amenities are only a few minutes' drive away, the center of the municipality offers you everything you could need throughout the year. The place offers a restaurant, cafe, school, post office, shop, pharmacy and other facilities necessary for life. Marčana is a great year-round destination, but lately it has been attracting more and more tourists who move here because of its untouched nature and proximity to the sea. Not far from the property, there is a 5 km long path from which you will see the most beautiful bays of Istria, find hidden beaches by yourself and enjoy the scents of nature. Due to its attributes, the land offers complete freedom in construction, whether you decide on family or tourist construction. Precisely because of the above, the destination is sought after for its price-quality ratio, which deviates from other more developed regions. It is divided into two plots of equal square footage, which allows you to build several buildings, it can serve as an excellent investment. If you want complete intimacy, you can have a beautiful garden of large square footage for a comfortable life. The proximity of the equestrian center will inspire you to spend time in the beautiful nature of this place. For more information, contact an agent.
