Description

Description:

Kaiser Immobilien offers an apartment on the first floor of a luxury villa 80 meters from the sea. The villa was built in 2022, and the highest quality materials and an innovative construction method were used during construction. In 126 m² there are 3 bedrooms, each with its own bathroom, a guest toilet and a large living room with a kitchen. The apartment also has a large covered terrace of 26 m². For complete enjoyment, there is also a large private garden of 76 m² with a swimming pool and a garden. During construction, the highest quality materials were used, so the apartment itself has built-in high-quality equipment. Underfloor heating, Mitsubishi cooling system with parapet units in every room. The floors are covered with porcelain ceramics, while the ceilings are lowered with built-in lighting. The apartment also has an anti-burglary door from the Italian manufacturer Diera, while the rest of the carpentry in the apartment is made of walnut wood. The building is secured with an alarm system and security cameras. It should be emphasized that the apartment has its own parking space and a charger for electric vehicles. What makes this villa exceptional apart from its location is that its facade is made of the ventilating Roman Travertine stone once used by the ancient Romans. ID CODE: 107-02
