Description

Description: These two autochthonous houses are located 15 km from Pula. The houses were renovated in 2022, with great care, the old, Istrian look has been preserved, and interesting details of stone, solid wood and antique objects are hidden in every corner. The property consists of a larger house with a gross area of 170 m² and less than 90 m². The houses have a common, beautifully landscaped yard with a 24m² swimming pool. There is also a sunbathing area, an outdoor shower, a small terrace with an Istrian patio, a covered area with a fireplace and a large table made of solid wood, an ideal place for long, summer gatherings. Given that the yard is located between the houses and is fenced on all sides, it provides the future owners with a relaxed stay in complete privacy. The larger house consists of a living room with a kitchen and a dining room with a wood-burning fireplace, on the ground floor there is also a guest toilet and a staircase leading to the upper floors where there are three bedrooms, each with its own bathroom and a covered terrace. In the smaller house, there is also a living room with a toilet on the ground floor, while on the upper floor there are two bedrooms with a shared bathroom. Air conditioners are installed in all rooms. The houses are categorized and ready for rent. Covered parking spaces for four cars are also owned. This charming property is ideal for lovers of the Mediterranean and autochthonous Istrian architecture. ID
