Description

Description:	Lokve - house in a row with a floor area of 44 m² with a garden of 1281 m². The house is in very good condition, decorated with fully quality custom-made furniture, and is ready to move in immediately. It consists of ground floor, first floor and high attic, and the floors are interconnected by an internal wooden staircase. On the ground floor there is an entrance and spacious hallway, kitchen, living room and bathroom, while on the first floor there are two bedrooms and a toilet. From this floor there is an exit to a landscaped and spacious green garden located at the back of the house, which offers privacy and enough space for possible additional facilities (swimming pool, gazebo and barbecue, garden, etc.). Next to the garden there is an auxiliary building of 10 m². The high attic is not decorated, but there is enough space and height to get more living space, and there are two new skylights on the roof. The house is fully furnished and equipped, and as such is sold. Parking is provided from the front of the house. The house is located in a very good position, close to all the necessary facilities, as well as a lake that every year in the summer months attracts an increasing number of visitors looking for a holiday in the fresh mountain air surrounded by nature.
