Description

Description:	We are selling a one-bedroom apartment with a beautiful garden in Malinska on the island of Krk. The apartment is located in the basement of the building and covers 37 m². It consists of a bathroom, room, kitchen, dining room and living room. The garden of this apartment has an area of about 80 m² and contains a beautiful wooden gazebo that allows you to enjoy the open air in all weather conditions. Also, the apartment belongs to one parking space which is an additional convenience for owners or guests. This property represents a great opportunity for those looking for a comfortable apartment with a nice outdoor space near the sea and all the facilities Malinska offers. The dolphin, which includes Malinska, located on the western part of the island of Krk, has a rich history and a diverse landscape. It owes its name to the rich oak forests (Duba), once abundant in the area, along with pastures and arable land. Malinska was once known as a wood export port, but eventually became a well-known climatic health resort thanks to the mild climate with many sunny days throughout the year. Today Malinska is one of the most famous tourist destinations on the island of Krk, famous for its beaches, developed hotel industry and family tourism. Porat, located near Malinska, used to be a fishing village, but today it became a tourist centre. The name of the place comes from the Italian word “port”, meaning port. Beaches in Malinska and on the island of Krk are generally considered to be some of the best in Croatia. The coast is diverse, offering all kinds of beaches, from rocky to sandy and pebble, and hidden coves. There are beaches adapted to all the needs and preferences of visitors, including beaches for children, people with disabilities, lovers of water sports, and even nudist beaches.
