Description

Description: Rare opportunity! Are you longing for a vacation in peace and untouched nature, but still want to be 20 minutes drive away from the capital of Istrian peninsula? Kavran is an idyllic peaceful village with wild beaches situated just couple of kilometers from the settlement. Connecting the sea to a village is a newly paved road which is surrounded by Mediterranean forest. On sale is this beautiful part of the forest which is connected on one side with the newly built asphalt road, and from the other, it is connected with camping settlement. The land can be used for expanding camping settlement, wild camping or as investment for the future. The two lots combined are, 19335m² and are less than 1 km from the beaches. There is an option for serious investors for buying additional, 10000m² of forest less than 500 m from the sea. The price is this low because of the seller's need for urgent reinvestment in other projects and because this part Istria is still less developed than others (just look at the prices of land of nearby places, like Medulin and Ližnjan). With newly paved road, natural beauty all around and ever expanding tourist potential of Kavran and surrounding places, this is a great investment for the near future. ID CODE: 300041108-20
