Description

Description:	For sale is a house with a garden close to the city center and close to all necessary amenities for a comfortable family life. The house is located on a plot of 183 m², and under the building is approx. 77 m², there is a yard that connects to an additional garden of 224 m². There are 2 apartments in the house, one on the ground floor and one on the first floor with separate entrances. The apartment on the ground floor is partially decorated, and has a large room that should be decorated and furnished as desired. The apartment on the first floor is in usable condition and can be lived in because it is equipped and furnished. There is a garage next to the house. This property represents a very good opportunity for investors due to its excellent location, the size of the garden where a swimming pool could be built, and the potential of arranging two comfortable apartments of approx. 70m² each.
