Description

Description:	ISTRIA, LABIN - Agricultural land 300 meters from the sea A little over 11,000 people live in Labin, and the city consists of as many as 17 smaller settlements. Although it is in Istria, Labin has no outlet to the sea, but its distance from the sea is 4 kilometers. The Old Town is located on the Labina hill, and the other part of the town is known under the symbolic name of Podlabin. The tourism of the town of Labin is closely related to its touristic part, which is called Rabac. It is a small place that was once known for its fishing, and today it is an important tourist destination. It abounds in beautiful nature and pebble beaches, and the sea is crystal clear and is called the pearl of the entire Kvarner. Not far from Labin, in the area of the small fishing town of Trget, there is this interesting agricultural land. It is a plot of land with an area of 3,557 m², of regular shape. The plot is surrounded by a beautiful dry stone wall. The land is overgrown with forest, but it offers a wonderful view of the sea. A macadam road owned by the Republic of Croatia leads to the land.
