Description

Description: Have you ever imagined yourself sitting on the terrace of your house, right by the sea, looking out at the water and sipping your morning coffee? Do you think such properties don't exist? We have just received such a unique property, and it's waiting just for you. In the south of Istria, specifically in Pomer, we have a beautiful villa under construction in the rarest location in Istria – the first row to the sea. This villa, with a total net living area of 351.03 m², will extend over three floors. The basement, with an area of 122.22 m², will house a fitness room with a sauna, a pool machine room, a playroom, a laundry room, a bathroom, and another machine room. By stairs, you will reach the ground floor, where you will enjoy an uninterrupted view of the sea and nature while savoring your morning coffee. The layout of the rooms will include a living room in an open space with the kitchen and dining room, leading to a spacious covered terrace with a stunning infinity pool measuring 44.74 m². A pantry and storage room with external access provide ample space for storage. There is also a bedroom with an en-suite bathroom and a separate guest WC. The first floor will feature three bedrooms with en-suite bathrooms, each with access to a terrace offering a beautiful sea view. The listed price refers to the property in its current stage of construction. A great advantage for the future owner is that they will be able to furnish and decorate the property according to their taste. Naturally, the finished property will have immeasurable value. All unnecessary daily conveniences are just minutes away. Pula 8 km Highway 8 km Pula Airport 12 km The listed price includes VAT, and the buyer is exempt from paying real estate transfer tax!
