Description

Description: Apartment on the ground floor of a new building with a garden in the vicinity of Poreč. In the vicinity of Poreč, this modern new building is completed in a building with only four residential units. The building is located only 6 km from the sea and the center of Poreč. For sale is a three-room apartment located on the ground floor of the building with a spacious garden. The apartment with its 52.85 m² net area offers a bright space in which there is a living room with an open-concept dining room and kitchen, two bedrooms and a bathroom. From the living room there is a loggia of 4.28 m² and a spacious garden that surrounds the entire apartment. The apartment is heated by underfloor heating with a heat pump and air conditioners for heating and cooling in every room. The apartment also has a parking space in front of the building. All the necessary and desirable content for life are located in the immediate vicinity. The planned completion of construction is in December 2024. The price of the property includes VAT.
