Description

Description:	Building land of 1119 m² is for sale in Slatine, on the island of Čiovo. Located in an area surrounded by already developed residential buildings, apartments, and holiday villas, this land offers an excellent opportunity for the construction of residential properties. The land is surrounded by existing infrastructure, and access is provided by a gravel road. Water and electricity connections are already available on the plot, reducing costs and speeding up the construction process. The documentation is in order, ownership is 1/1, and the plot has the necessary location information. Slatine is 12 kilometers from Trogir, approximately a 20-minute drive. The proximity to Trogir, a city rich in amenities and historical landmarks, along with good transport connections to the rest of the region, makes this location attractive. This land represents a solid investment in a developed part of Slatine, with clear potential for further development of residential or tourist properties.
