Description

Description: A beautiful stone house with an area of 89 m² is for sale, located in Tisno near the sea. This house is spread over three floors and was completely reconstructed in 2015, including new electrical installations, plumbing, sewage, roof, insulation, AB construction and new carpentry. On the ground floor there is a studio apartment, ideal for renting or as a guest space, while on the upper floors there is a two-story apartment with a separate entrance. A simple conversion is also possible, which allows all floors to be combined into one residential unit, providing you with additional flexibility and space customization options. This property offers all the conveniences of modern living with the charm of traditional stone construction.

Enjoy the smell of the sea and the wonderful view, while at the same time you are close to all the facilities that Tisno offers. Do not miss the opportunity to own this beautiful house in one of the most beautiful parts of the Adriatic! For more information and to arrange a viewing, feel free to contact us.
