Description

Description:

Istria Svetvinčenat agricultural land. Svetvinčenat, a charming Istrian town, located in central Istria, is known for its medieval Morosini-Grimani castle and numerous events. This property is located near the Istrian epsilon highway and a macadam road leads to it. It is about land that is defined in the spatial planning documentation as a forest for economic use. There are several olive groves, vineyards and orchards nearby, so the land could be suitable for growing olives or grapevines. Contact us for additional information or to arrange a viewing.
