Description

Description:

The house is located in Valbandon, a famous tourist spot on the coast of Istria. This two-story house is currently in the roh-bau stage, the interior is not yet completely finished. It is located on a spacious land with insurance the necessary connections (water, electricity, etc.), which allows the work to continue without interruption. The house was conceived as an object suitable for business and residential use. The ground floor can be used for business premises, such as offices, a shop, or a small restaurant, while the upper floors are intended for residential units. This flexibility makes it an ideal investment for those who want to combine business activities with comfortable living. Orientation of the house: south Valbandon is a tourist village located on the very coast of southern Istria, and the fact that it is located in the immediate vicinity of Pula and the proximity of the camp "Bi Village" make it ideal destination for families with children. Also, the proximity of Brijuni National Park, which consists of 13 smaller and 2 larger islands, makes it one of the more interesting tourist destinations. Brijuni National Park is one of the most beautiful natural phenomena I am at your disposal for additional information. ID CODE: IS1513957
