Description

Description:	On as much as 9624m ² of building land there is this large property with about 40 walnut trees and 2 wells. There is an electricity connection and the connection to the village water supply is about 50 m away from the house itself. True, the house needs to be refurbished and the price-quality ratio is there when you take into account how much land there is in one piece around the house and the possibility of disposing of 5 Ha of agricultural land. The property consists of 2 so-called enclosures. There are no more buildings on one of them, and the main house is a combination of wooden and brick. The basement has 3 rooms and a covered terrace. On the high ground floor there is a kitchen, hallway, bathroom, four bedrooms. There is plenty of storage space in the attic, pantry, basement, woodshed and smokehouse. Stipan is a village in the municipality of Gvozd, SMŽ and the house is 10 km away from the nearest store in Lasinja, 40 km from Zagreb. Peace is guaranteed here, and asphalt has been promised a long time ago, so the property is not suitable for those who are bothered by dust and insects, but for those with big plans and for investors who know how to appreciate natural resources.
