Description

Description: Marčana is a peaceful place located in the southeastern part of Istria, known for its rich history, natural beauty and authentic Mediterranean atmosphere. This charming municipality is the perfect combination of rural surroundings and proximity to all urban amenities, offering its residents a pleasant and relaxed lifestyle. Marčana is only a few kilometers away from the beautiful Adriatic beaches, and at the same time it is close to larger cities such as Pula, which allows easy access to schools, shops, restaurants and other necessary facilities. Surrounded by untouched nature, forests and fields, Marčana offers an ideal environment for a peaceful life in harmony with nature. The agricultural property in Marčana covers an impressive 13,300 m² and represents a perfect opportunity for nature and agriculture lovers. The estate consists of an outbuilding, arable fields, vineyards, olive groves and pastures, all in one unit, creating a unique and harmonious oasis of peace. The land is beautifully maintained and cultivated by the current owner, which provides ideal conditions for the continuation of agricultural activities or for enjoying nature. Proximity to all necessary amenities, such as shops, schools and health facilities, makes this property a perfect choice for those who want to enjoy a rural lifestyle while being connected to all the necessary amenities.
