one of which has a balcony. The basement is entered from the front of the house. The house is wooden (oak), moved here on a masonry foundation many years ago as it used to be done. The view is as beautiful as the orchard with old varieties. The house can be reached by a short macadam road and is 2km away from the nearest shop. 2280m2 of building land and the rest of the land is agricultural and suitable for family farms or return to nature and environmental preservation for future generations. The village belongs to the municipality of Gvozd and a free school bus travels to all hamlets where there are children. Bović is a 45-minute drive from Zagreb and is on a direct road for him and the Pisarovina industrial zone. ID CODE: ZG71851
