Bošana is a small village on the island of Pag, bordering the town of Pag. This unique village on the Adriatic coast stands out with its position overlooking the sea and Velebit, as well as its numerous crystal-clear and calm coves. Bošana also includes a significant landscape and the special forest vegetation reserve Dubrava Hanzina, making this location unique. Everything necessary for a comfortable life, such as shops, restaurants, pharmacies, and a post office, is located in the town of Pag, just a 10-minute drive away. Only 30 minutes away are authentic Pag settlements such as Poveljana, Mandre, Kolan, and the well-known Novalja with its clubs. The island of Pag also offers world-renowned products such as Pag cheese, lace, one of the three sea saltworks in Croatia, and lamb, which has a unique flavor due to the island's specific vegetation.
