Description

Description: Hreljići, located in the heart of Istria, is an ideal destination for those looking for an authentic Istrian experience and an escape from the busy life. This small village exudes a peaceful atmosphere and enchants with its traditional Istrian atmosphere. In Hreljići you will find numerous cultural sights, such as old churches and authentic Istrian houses, which bear witness to the rich history of this region. The natural beauty surrounding Hreljići, including untouched forests and fertile valleys, is ideal for walking, cycling and exploring. The proximity of larger cities, such as Pula and Rovinj, and the beautiful Adriatic coast, makes Hreljiće the perfect destination for those who want to enjoy a peaceful rural environment, while being close to all necessary amenities. The building plot with a total size of 1975 m² is located at the end of a quiet settlement, which ensures privacy and peace. Approximately 1000 m² of land is located within the construction area, while the rest falls outside the construction area, which provides opportunities for creative landscaping. The land has a secured access road and all the necessary infrastructure, including electricity and water, is located in the immediate vicinity. The building part of the land is flat, which makes it easier to build and plan your future home or tourist facility, while the rest of the land has a gentle slope towards the forest on the north side. This property represents an ideal investment opportunity in a quiet and attractive part of Istria, perfect for creating an oasis of relaxation and enjoyment.
