renovated apartment with two bedrooms. The apartment is located on the second floor of a residential building with an area of 73m² and consists of: - entrance hall - two bedrooms - kitchen and living room (Open space) - pantry - bathrooms - loggias A wide hallway connects the entire apartment and leads to the spacious living room on the south side, which is connected to the comfortable kitchen into one large and bright space. The kitchen is richly equipped with new and high-quality appliances. The oven is elevated. Both rooms have a lot of natural light and are comfortable to stay in. The streets surrounding the apartment are quiet and there is no noise. The southern part of the apartment is decorated with a closed loggia with new PVC carpentry. The windows can be opened, depending on the need. Extremely pleasant for relaxing during summer and winter evenings. Between the living room and the bedrooms, in the middle of the apartment, there is a beautifully designed and arranged bathroom and a separate toilet. On the north side, which overlooks the courtyard of the building, there are two bedrooms. The rooms are filled with natural light and are pleasant to stay in, given the peace offered by the adjacent courtyard. The apartment is sold fully furnished. Air conditioning heating. Town gas is also available. The new owner has the option of heating with wood. The PVC joinery was completely changed, and underfloor heating was installed in the bathroom during the renovation. The apartment also has a room in the basement. Due to its exceptional location, it is ideal for families. Kindergartens and a school are nearby. There is also a shopping center, shops and other things that make staying in this location more pleasant. Due to its proximity to the sea, it is ideal for renting and additional income. Ownership is 1/1, and it is also possible to buy on credit, which makes the buying process even easier. Do not miss the opportunity to become the owner of this wonderful apartment in Pula and enjoy all the advantages of living near the sea and beautiful Pula!
