Description

Description:

LABIN Labin is a town located on the eastern coast of the Istrian peninsula in Croatia. It is located on a hill overlooking the Kvarner Bay and the islands of Cres and Lošinj. Labin has a rich history dating back to Roman times, and its old town is adorned with narrow cobbled streets, medieval architecture and historic sites. The city has a strong cultural and artistic scene, numerous galleries, studios and cultural events held throughout the year. An excellent newly built villa with a total gross area of 239 m² is located on a landscaped garden of 1000 m². Upon entering the house, we come to the mezzanine floor where there is one large bedroom with its own bathroom. From the mezzanine we have stairs that lead to the upper and lower floors of the house. On the upper part, there are two bedrooms, each with its own bathroom, and access to the balcony. There is another smaller room that serves as a laundry room. On the lower floor there is a spacious kitchen with a living room, which has direct access to the terrace, outdoor grill and swimming pool. From the pool there is an open view of the greenery and Učka. It will provide the future buyer with a pleasant vacation in a quiet place, not far from the city center. He has a very well-established rental business. This property also offers an open basement, which is a real rarity!
