Description

Description:	Labin, located on a hill overlooking the sparkling Adriatic Sea, exudes history and charm. This medieval town, with narrow stone streets and ancient buildings, offers visitors an authentic insight into the rich Istrian past. Labin is known for its cultural heritage, numerous art galleries and events, and offers a unique combination of traditional and contemporary life. Nearby is Rabac, a popular tourist center with beautiful beaches, crystal clear sea and numerous opportunities for recreation, which makes this location perfect for anyone looking for peace and relaxation in a natural environment. In this idyllic setting, a building plot of 900 square meters is for sale, which offers an ideal opportunity to build your dream home. Located in a quiet location, the land has direct access from the paved road, and electricity and water are already available on the plot. This area is perfect for building a holiday home with a swimming pool or a family home surrounded by nature, allowing you to enjoy all the benefits that this beautiful part of Istria has to offer.
