Description

Description: On a property of over 10,000 m² stands a magnificent castle with a total living area of 450 m². The castle comprises a basement, ground floor, first floor, and a high attic, offering plenty of space and elegance through its historic rooms. Included in the sale are also several outbuildings, which further enrich the offer and make this complex exceptionally attractive. The historical significance of the castle is invaluable, as it has witnessed many important events and served as a home or residence to significant figures from the past. The castle boasts historical ties to notable figures such as Ferdinand of Habsburg, a commander from the famous Habsburg dynasty. Napoleon's Marshal Marmont, known for his military career and influence in Dalmatia, was also connected with this estate. The castle is linked to Ljudevit Gaj, one of the most prominent leaders of the Illyrian movement, and Stanko Vraz, a Slovenian poet who worked in Croatia. The history of the castle also includes Count Drašković, a renowned figure from the noble Drašković family, which had a significant impact on political and cultural events in the region. This castle is not just an imposing structure but also a place that tells stories of glorious days gone by, bringing a touch of history into the everyday life of its future owners.
