Description

Description:	For sale is an extremely attractive agricultural land with 25 healthy olive trees, located on an area of 800 square meters. This plot is characterized by good access, with neat ownership and all the necessary infrastructure in the immediate vicinity. The land is currently included in the urban plan in the infrastructure zone, but recently an objection was submitted for conversion into building land. This possible change makes this offer even more attractive, offering potential investment value in line with future urban plans. This property represents an outstanding opportunity for investors or those looking for a peaceful rural setting with the possibility of future development.
