Description

Description: One of the most "photogenic" towns in the Mediterranean is the former fishing and now tourist town of Rovinj-Rovigno. About 40 kilometers from Pula, Rovinj-Rovigno has long been known as a city whose climatic features have a favorable effect on health. Therefore, even today, this city and its citizens cherish a long tradition of maintaining the place and "fight" for the epithet "healthy city"... and nature does the rest. The entire coast, namely, along with twenty-two islands, is a protected natural heritage. A 10-minute walk from the historic center of Rovinj, there is this small apartment with one bedroom, bathroom, living room and kitchen, as well as a small hallway and terrace. It is located in a quiet part of the city, near shops, cafes and other amenities essential for life. For all details call:
