Description

Description: We invite you to seize the unique opportunity to purchase this beautiful house located in the heart of Cres, one of the most stunning islands in the Adriatic Sea. This house combines functionality, comfort, and the charm of traditional Mediterranean style with modern amenities. Location: The house is situated in the very center of Cres, surrounded by charming streets and traditional architecture. All essential amenities such as shops, restaurants, beaches, and cultural attractions are within easy reach. Description of the House: Ground Floor: The ground floor of the house features a well-appointed commercial space of 22 m², ideal for starting your own business or as additional living space. First Floor: External stairs lead to the first floor where you'll find a spacious two-level apartment offering comfort and privacy. Additionally, this floor houses a smaller room with its own en-suite bathroom, providing extra flexibility and comfort. Additional Features: New Facade: The house has recently been renovated with a brand-new facade that ensures both aesthetic appeal and durability. New Shutters: New shutters have also been installed, providing additional security and control over light and privacy. This house represents an outstanding opportunity for those seeking a comfortable home in the heart of Cres, whether for living, vacationing, or conducting business. For more information and to schedule a viewing, feel free to contact us. Don't miss out on the chance to make this beautiful home yours in one of the most picturesque parts of the Adriatic Sea!
