two-room apartment with a living room. The yard is divided and the apartment has a fenced garden of 29 m² and a parking space. The property is neat and habitable though requires adaptation according to today's standards. the house is interesting for tourist rent but also for long-term rent, especially for employees. This floor is also for people who are looking for a plot of land with more accommodation options in beautiful Krk. For additional information and viewing, contact your agent.
