Description

Description:	The plot is rectangular in shape, providing a simple and functional layout that facilitates planning and construction. The terrain is flat, which further simplifies construction work and enables efficient use of space. One of the key attributes of this plot is the well-arranged approach that facilitates accessibility and communication with the plot. This element makes the plot practical and easily accessible. The view of the Učka and Labin mountains from the plot further enriches its appeal. The presence of natural beauty in the surroundings provides tenants with a complete experience of life, allowing them to enjoy beautiful landscapes. Mountain views can be inspiring and relaxing, adding value to living in that location. This building plot offers the possibility of building a home adapted to the needs and wishes of the owner, while maintaining a high standard of living. Given the regulated access, flat terrain and spectacular view, this plot represents an extraordinary opportunity to create a home in harmony with nature and surroundings. Call for all additional information and viewing of the property in order to offer you a personalized approach and discreet service of finding properties according to your wishes and preferences.
