space according to individual needs. An additional advantage is the possibility of obtaining a permit for the construction of another building. The villa consists of a living room with soaring 6-meter-high ceilings, leading to a terrace with a sea view, a kitchen and dining area with access to the terrace, as well as a pantry and a guest toilet. An open staircase leads you to the upper floor, where you'll find a spacious master bedroom with its own bathroom and access to a private balcony. Additionally, on this floor, there are two double bedrooms, each with its own access to separate balconies, providing intimacy and stunning sea views. An extra bathroom on this floor ensures complete comfort for all residents of the villa. On the ground floor of the villa, a small servant's quarters is situated, ensuring complete privacy on the upper floor. This villa is designed for sea enthusiasts and those seeking beautiful destinations. Its combination of modern design, top-notch amenities, and a spectacular environment makes it an ideal choice for a relaxing and luxurious vacation.
