Description

Description:	The building plot is located in a peaceful small village near Kanfanar and offers something entirely unique - the possibility to choose the land area according to your preferences! With no limitations, you can choose between 600 to 1500 square meters, and even more if you wish to expand your space for a future home. This offer provides perfect flexibility - choose the position and size of the land that best suits your needs. The access road is directly from an asphalt road. The unique feature of this land is the presence of a complete set of infrastructure - from sewage to water, electricity, and telephone - everything is already available on the plot itself, significantly reducing construction costs. A practical and attractive location, proximity to the highway exit (3km), and the vicinity of Rovinj (15km) make this property ideal for investment in tourism or for family purposes.
