Description

Description:

This beautiful detached house is located in an extremely quiet location in the idyllic village of Ladrovici, just a few steps away from the magical Poreč. With its two floors and two separate residential units, this property offers an ideal opportunity to enjoy life on the coast of Istria. The ground floor of this house enchants with its simple charm. Here is a pleasant one-room apartment that offers a spacious living room, a kitchen with a modern design and a bright bathroom. In addition, two spacious garages are located in the second part of the ground floor. The first, with an area of 20 square meters, provides enough space for parking and storage, while the second, with a larger square footage, opens up possibilities for conversion into an apartment or a comfortable studio apartment. On the first floor of this elegant house, there is a comfortable apartment that will delight every family. With a spacious living room, a modern style kitchen, a bright bathroom and as many as four comfortable bedrooms, this apartment provides space for a comfortable and pleasant life. Also, the spacious balcony invites you to relax in nature. In addition to the outstanding architecture, the location of this property is extremely favorable. The sea is only ten kilometers away, allowing you to enjoy the benefits of the coast whenever you want. Also, access to the highway is only 3 kilometers away, making all important destinations in Istria easily accessible. This gem of a property is surrounded by a manicured environment that is fully fenced, providing you with privacy and security. This house in Ladrovići is a true oasis of peace, a space where you will feel at home from the first moment. Do not miss the opportunity to enjoy this unique property that offers a combination of comfort, elegance and practicality. ID CODE: IS1509853
