Description

Description:

A spacious 4.5-room apartment is coming to the market, situated right in the heart of Zagreb, nestled between Ban Jelačić Square and Flower Square. This apartment boasts 157 square meters of living space and is located on the first floor of a courtyard reinforced concrete residential building constructed in 1939 according to the renowned design of Ivan Meštrović. The apartment itself consists of four separate rooms, two kitchens, two bathrooms, a foyer, and a storage room. It is south-facing, ensuring abundant natural light throughout the day. The heating is provided by a central gas heating system. In 2018, the apartment underwent partial renovations, including complete refurbishments of the bathrooms and kitchens, including the replacement of plumbing and ceramics. Since then, the apartment has functioned as two separate residential units, making it an excellent investment opportunity for rental income. This beautiful apartment offers numerous advantages, including: Two Balconies and a Large Shared Terrace: In addition to the balconies, the apartment provides access to a spacious shared terrace of approximately 90 square meters. Ideal for gatherings with family and friends or simply relaxing outdoors. Construction Quality: The building has withstood recent earthquakes without any damage and has received a green certificate for habitability, ensuring a safe and comfortable living environment. Covered Parking Space: The apartment includes an allocated covered parking space in the courtyard, a rarity in the city center. Excellent Location: Nearby amenities include a primary school, daycare, public transportation, Dolac Market, Zagreb Cathedral, and many other attractions. The apartment's ownership is clear, and purchasing via a bank loan is possible. Don't miss out on this rare opportunity to live in a luxurious space in the vibrant center of Zagreb.
