Description

Description:	Extraordinary combined land for sale in the idyllic village of Peruški, with a total area of 1997 square meters. This rectangular piece of land represents a true rarity - 995 square meters are designated for construction, while the remaining 1002 square meters are agricultural. One of the key advantages of this land is the access road. All necessary infrastructure is already in close proximity. But that's not all! This beautiful plot offers a spectacular panoramic sea view, even from the ground floor, and from the first floor, it will be a view that will delight you again and again. If you love sea adventures, the beaches are only 1000 meters away, providing you with the opportunity to enjoy sunny days and the refreshing Adriatic Sea. This attractive location makes this land an ideal choice for investing in a holiday home, where you can escape from the everyday stress and relax in a natural environment. If you dream of complete privacy, the good news is that there is the possibility of purchasing more land adjacent to this one, so you can create your own paradise without interference. Ownership 1/1, free of encumbrances! Welcome to Marčana, a municipality in the southeastern part of the Istrian Peninsula, which welcomes you with untouched nature and interesting historical monuments. This is the ideal destination for those seeking a different form of vacation, far from the summer crowds. Start exploring the surroundings and discover parts of Istrian history in picturesque bays, churches, and the remains of
