Description

Description:	The building plot is located near Barban, in an excellent location, an idyllic opportunity for building a home or an investment. The land is located in an extraordinary location, with a total area of 1246 m², on the edge of the village of Barban, which provides an ideal balance between the peace of village life and proximity to urban amenities. This will allow the future owners to enjoy the natural silence and beauty of the countryside, while all the necessary amenities are within easy reach. You can expect beautiful views of nature, as well as the privacy it provides. This creates a feeling of peace and connection with nature. The location on the edge of the village means that basic infrastructure services (water, electricity, gas, etc.) are likely to be available or easily accessible. This makes the building process easier and less complicated. In short, this building plot near Barban in an excellent location offers the perfect combination of peaceful village life, proximity to the sea and natural environment. It is an opportunity to create a home or an investment that will allow you to enjoy the beautiful Istrian region.
