Description

Description:	We present to you a unique building plot located in Volma, only 500 meters away from the clear blue sea. This luxurious plot covers an area of 1001 m². The charm of Volma lies in their proximity to the sea and nature, and this land stands out for its location just a few steps from the coast. All necessary infrastructure is located in the immediate vicinity. Ownership is clear 1/1 and free of encumbrances. According to the spatial plan, it belongs to a part of the construction area with tourist and catering purpose T2. This means that you have the opportunity to create a vacation oasis, build holiday homes, luxury apartments or elegant hotels, with the possibility of accompanying services, hospitality and tourism, as well as recreation and entertainment. Banjole is a small fishing and tourist town in Istria County in Croatia. They are located in the very south of the Istrian peninsula between the two beautiful coves of Soline and Paltan. Administratively, they belong to the small town of Medulin, and they are only 8 kilometers away from the city of Pula. About 1,000 inhabitants live in the village, who have traditionally been engaged in agriculture and fishing, and more recently in tourism, so most of them offer quality private accommodation in apartments, rooms and holiday homes. Being in an extremely inviting location and close to all amenities, you don't want to let this extraordinary opportunity pass you by! I am at your disposal for more information and/or a tour.
