Description

Description:	Šajini is a village located in the municipality of Barban in Istria, Croatia. Agricultural land in Šajin is characterized by diversity and fertility, which makes it favorable for various agricultural activities. Most of the agricultural land in Šajin consists of arable land that is used for growing various crops. The soil is usually fertile and rich in nutrients, which provides good conditions for growing crops such as cereals, vegetables, fruits and olives. These areas usually have good soil quality and are suitable for different types of cultivation and sowing. In addition to the rich agricultural area, Šajini are also surrounded by natural beauty and rural landscape. The agricultural land offers picturesque views of olive groves, fields and green pastures, creating a peaceful and natural atmosphere. ID CODE: IS1509088
