Description

Description: Every house is a story. The old house is full of stories. Living in an ancient building means being lucky enough to live in an antique house, where the splendor of historical elements is part of your daily life. This beauty was born in 1676 and today it is the most representative secular building in the city. If the renovation in a modern key manages to combine the grace of the ancient decorations of the old house, while fully respecting the original architectural characteristics, it means that the ancient residence has found a new light. Completely renovated villa with an outbuilding and a spacious garden. The house was completely renovated in 2019 and consists of two prestigious buildings (main and annex), which were completely built by the architect Emil Jurcan, won an award for architecture, and were designed to provide you with unique feelings of comfort, just a few minutes from the center Pula is one of the most beautiful beaches on the peninsula. The
