villa there is a spacious living room, which is the central gathering place in the house. The living room offers enough space for a comfortable stay. Also, there are three bedrooms on the first floor, each with its own bathroom, which provides privacy and comfort for its owners or guests of the villa. In the comfort of your own home, additional facilities upstairs include wellness and sauna. One of the key features of this villa is the 25 m² swimming pool, which is located on the first floor. The pool is accessible from the living room and two rooms that have access to the sun deck and the pool. This unique feature offers a wonderful view and allows you to enjoy a refreshing swim and sunbathe on the roof of the villa. The house is equipped with underfloor heating, which provides a pleasant temperature and comfort throughout the year. Also, air conditioners have been installed for cooling, which allows the temperature to be adjusted according to the wishes of the tenants. When it comes to construction quality, this villa is built with high-quality materials, which ensures durability and an aesthetically appealing appearance. The villa can be furnished according to the customer's wishes, providing a personalized space that suits individual preferences. Given its outstanding location, this villa is an ideal property for tourist rental, offering luxury and privacy. Poreč is a unique combination of history, nature, culture and gastronomy. Its beauty, warmth and charm make it an attractive destination for everyone who wants to explore the beauty of the Istrian peninsula and the Adriatic Sea. A popular tourist destination due to its beautiful coastline and crystal clear Adriatic Sea. Visitors can enjoy wide sandy beaches, hidden coves and picturesque islets that surround the area.
