Description

Description:

Selce is a small town, near Crikvenica, once home to fishermen and masons, and today it has grown into a place for an unforgettable vacation. It is already 4 times declared the best-kept tourist place in Kvarner. The place is adorned with several historical sites that testify to its past. It is full of beautiful beaches that have proudly carried the blue flag for years. The local port consists of an operational pier and a pier and shore for boats. At 300 meters from the sea and the town center is a beautiful apartment villa on 4 floors. On the ground floor there are 2 apartments with large terraces, a kitchen that has been used for many years to prepare breakfast for guests, a dining room and a terrace that can accommodate 20 people, a storage room with laundry and a boiler room with heating and hot water tank. On the first floor is a spacious apartment with a large living room with kitchen and dining area, which have 2 balconies, two bedrooms with their own balconies, bathroom, toilet and hallway. On the second and third floor there are a total of 8 bedrooms with bathrooms and balconies. All rooms have a sea view. In the landscaped yard of the villa there is a summer kitchen with a large pantry, a large terrace for socializing with barbecue, electric grill and fountain, and an olive tree on which are arranged favorite bird feeders. There is also a garage for 2 cars and a wine cellar. There are a total of 8 parking spaces. The villa is made of top quality materials, the roof is Mediterranean, the floors are covered with parquet and marble, the interior carpentry is oak, the exterior PVC, the stairs are all marble, and the walls are decorated with stone. The first 2 floors have oil central heating, and the second 2 floors are heated by air conditioners. Solar panels on the roof heating water for the whole building. Each room has satellite TV, and Wi-Fi is present in every corner. The villa is for sale fully furnished, along with unique decorations that give it a special car.
