Description

Description:	In Rovinj, the champion of Croatian tourism and the jewel of Istria, there is a three-room apartment measuring 58 m ² in the center of the famous old town, on the third floor. What makes this apartment very attractive is its location in the very center and 150 m proximity to the sea and all amenities for everyday life. Then it is located in a quiet and not busy street. Going up to the third floor, we enter the living room with the kitchen by an interesting staircase. The possibility of additional stairs leading to the attic above the living room is also great. With that, you would get another room when you want your peace and wake up early to greet the sun with Yoga training. The apartment is optimal for a young family who can decorate their space according to their taste and style. It consists of an entrance hall - staircase, living room with kitchen, three rooms - two of which are children's and one parental, bathroom and toilet. Those narrow winding streets are fun to walk and enjoy the beauty of the beautiful greenery and take photos. Then go down to the sea and immerse yourself in its blueness. All this makes this apartment extremely attractive to future owners.
