of all beaches is 1800 meters long, which in the season bursts with children's smiles and joy. In this pearl of the Adriatic for sale is a five-star resort consisting of nine luxuriously equipped apartments for two people. In total, 18 tourist beds are now offered for use in luxury accommodation units, which, in addition to their interior design adapted to the modern demanding guest, is made special by a rich palette of common facilities arranged in the central part of the complex, a square. And on it, in addition to sunbathing areas and several harmoniously landscaped gardens, there are places for a large shared pool, as well as for a sauna complex. Each apartment has a top-quality jacuzzi on its terrace, and what is especially interesting is that the terraces of each of the five "five-star" apartments are vaulted with pergolas under which solar panels create shade to enable the use of renewable energy sources.
