Description

Description:

This attractive parcel is located in a beautiful and quiet area in Lobarika, just about 10 minutes drive from Pula, and represents an excellent opportunity for building your future home. The land is fenced with a gate, providing additional privacy and security. A building permit is in the process of being obtained, and the property has a bio-septic system, along with connections for electricity and water. This allows for an easier and quicker start to construction. This is the last plot in the row, which adds to its attractiveness, considering the peaceful environment and proximity to nature.
