Description

Description: In the vicinity of Labin, only 10 km away, there is this beautiful renovated stone house with a wonderful view of the sea. The house is approx. 500 m from the sea. The house is spread over two floors. It consists of ground and first floor. On the ground floor of the house there is a kitchen with a dining room, a living room with access to the terrace, a sundeck and a swimming pool. On the first floor of the house there are two bedrooms with a bathroom and a balcony. Considering the location where this house is located, this house is ideal for lovers of nature, silence and the sea. It is designed to offer perfect comfort. The town of Labin is located on a hill above Rabac. Labin, whose old name was Albona, was first mentioned in 285 AD. The hometown of Matija Vlačić, the reformer and associate of Martin Luther, is today a cultural and administrative center. Rarely, the wealth of architecture and cultural-historical monuments is so charmingly combined with numerous art studios and the breath of youth that gathers there, especially in the evening, in numerous cafes. After a walk through the streets of the Old Town, visit the City Museum with an archaeological and ethnological collection and a mine model unique in this part of Europe, visit the memorial collection of Matija Vlačić Iliriko, take a look at the art studios, enjoy the beautiful view from the city's Fortress of Rabac, Cres and the surrounding area.
