Description

Description: ISTRIA, LABIN - Business premises in a frequent location Halfway between Pula > medieval core was the center of coal mining in the 50s and 60s. It is a place where history and modern times meet. Enchanting coves, grandiose gastronomy, warm and witty inhabitants characterize this city, which has become a favorite destination for guests from German-speaking countries. Welcome is guaranteed here. In a popular location in Labin, within walking distance from the city center, a business space on the ground floor of 92 m2 is for rent. The space is rented empty and offers a number of options to the future tenant. The space was previously used as a shop, but it has a lot of potential to be equipped as an office or for service activities. The rental price for legal entities is 1,000 euros per month, while the price for natural persons is 1,250 euros per month.
