Description

Description: This apartment in the city center is an ideal blend of comfort, spaciousness, and an exclusive location. With its 78 square meters, it offers exceptional functionality and a harmonious layout. It consists of an elegant living room filled with light and warmth, a modern kitchen connected to a large dining room, perfect for family meals and gatherings with friends. The bedroom provides intimacy and tranquility, while two spacious bathrooms offer additional comfort. The apartment also has a practical storage room, providing extra space—a true rarity in city apartments. One of the key highlights of this apartment is its stunning view of the Governor's Palace, giving residents a unique perspective on the urban landscape and cultural heritage of the city. The central location ensures quick access to all amenities—from shops and restaurants to cafes, museums, and parks—making this apartment an ideal choice for those who want to live at the heart of the city's life with an added touch of prestige and comfort.
