It is located in the far northwest of Zadar County. It is surrounded by the Vir Sea and the Povljana Channel and numerous smaller bays. It is connected to the mainland by a bridge. The indented coastline of the island of Vir, 31.43 km long, is adorned with many beaches, from sandy, pebble to rocky, rocky, from crowded, well-maintained beaches with a variety of amenities to intimate coves, as part of untouched nature. The beaches of the island of Vir, partly located next to pine forests with crystal clear sea, make this island ideal for a family vacation. In addition to tourism in the summer months, Vir is an ideal oasis of peace for family life in winter.
