entrance to the Bay of Bakar, about twenty kilometers south of Rijeka. It has an indented coast, green and lush vegetation, so it is known for its beaches and nice walks. Two medieval castles with a church, which are the legacy of the Croatian noble families Zrinski and Frankopan, are the venue for cultural and entertainment events in the summer, and together with the surrounding area are a well-known tourist destination for those who want to rest, sail, dive and, of course, have fun and enjoy the cultural offer. Thanks to its geographical position, natural beauty and healthy climate, Kraljevica is one of the first centers of health tourism from the end of the last century, which is linked to the tourism development of Kraljevica.
